The first release in our Legendary Series, Brabo's Cut is a bold, complex Belgian-Style Dark Ale. Brewed with blessed water, it's rich with notes of brown sugar, figs, and sweet honey, compliments of the local, wildflower honey from our brewer's family hives.

Inspired by how the Belgian city of Antwerp got its name, it tells the story of a Roman soldier named Silvius Brabo, the man who slayed the giant Druon Antigoon. Today we honor Brabo's heroism with these spoils of a job well done. A mighty reward that we share with you.

TASTING NOTES:

- ▶ Sweet, wildflower honey
- ▶ Rich, brown sugar
- ▶ Candied-fig notes
- ▶ Belgian fruit esters

PAIRS WELL WITH:

WASHED-RIND CHEESES, BRAISED OXTAIL, ROAST DUCK, RACK OF LAMB, CREME BRULEE, FRESH FRUIT TART
